

Ladenford Den Pricing Explained (updated 2026)

There are three areas at Ladenford that can be booked – two campsites and the hut.

Our usual policy is to only ever book two of these areas out at the same time and not to do so without consulting both groups to ensure they are happy with the arrangements.

To book the hut only the charge will be £7.50 per person per night. In this situation the hut users may find a group camping outside but they will be consulted before the second booking is accepted.

Campsite only fee will be £6.50 per person per night. This gives access to the camp store and the campsite side of the bathroom and the disabled/campsite shower. There is a kettle plus fridge and freezer in the camp store.

If a group booking a campsite only then finds themselves using the hut facilities for whatever reason, then they would be required to pay the 'campsite and hut' fee of £8.50 pppn. If campsite only is booked the group may find another group using the hut but again they would be consulted before the second booking is accepted.

The fee to book the hut and one campsite, will be £8.50 per person per night. In this situation there may be another group camping on the other campsite but again both groups will be consulted before the second booking is accepted.

The whole site booking will be on application only and is meant for large scale events such as district or county residentials with all sections present.

All levels of booking have complete and unrestricted access to the woods, campfire circle and picnic tables. It is expected that when there are two groups at Ladenford at the same time the leaders will consult each other about use of the outside areas, and indeed showers if necessary, so that everyone is happy and can gain access to the areas they require.

There will be a £50 non-returnable deposit to be paid to secure the booking, which is deductible from the final invoice.

Members of Girlguiding Angus will continue to get a 10% discount.
